SEOS ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP 2010

If you wish to be part of SEOS but do not wish to participate in the event, you can join as an Associate Member for just £25. This means you will not have a entry in the printed guide but your website entry will remain in place for another year and indicate that you are not taking part in the 2010 event. You can also update your web page with a new image.

Please note: You must have an existing SEOS web page from the preceding year.

As an Associate Member...

- Your web page will be found in name and category searches on the SEOS website.
- Your web page will be found by search engines such as Google.
- The link on your web page will continue to send visitors to your personal website.
- Clients and galleries can be referred to your web page using it's unique address.
- You will receive regular newsletters, bulletins and emails from SEOS.

Please complete this form and send to the address shown below by Sunday 28th February 2010

If you wish to have a new image, please send it by email attachment to website@seos-art.org Acceptable file types are jpg or tiff. It should be 72dpi and at least 400 x 400 pixels. File size should be less than 1Mb. Include the image title, medium and size (cm) in your email.

Extra images and/or text, can be added or renewed at extra cost. Please see Extend your Web Page available from the download page www.seos-art.org/downloads

Alternatively send your image on a CD. Include the title, medium and size (cm) in a Word or PDF file. Applications or renewals for extra images and/or text (separate form), can be done at the same time and go on the same CD but please state which is your main image (first image that appears on your page). Please do not send your CD in a plastic box (jewel case), use a plastic or paper sleeve.
