STUDIO 58 Daniel Huckfield
I am interested in the use of familiar images to create new interpretations. My work stems from abstraction, but increasingly references pop art. I use mainly spray paint and stencils to create work.

Carol O'Dea - Ink & Stone

I am a student of Chinese brush and Sumi-e (Japanese ink) painting. I try to paint the subject, not with complete accuracy, but a feeling for the subject and the impression of it in my mind.

1 Chequers Cottages, Chequers Hill, Bough Beech, TN8 7PE

STUDIO 59 Julia Corfe
Using the landscapes of North Yorkshire and Pembrokeshire as inspiration, I experiment with colour and tonality to explore the crossovers in drawing, painting and printmaking.

Sovereign Barn, Crockham Park, Edenbridge, TN8 6SR

STUDIO 60 Sue Houghton
I am a contemporary artist, working mainly in oils. Evocative, energising seascapes & landscapes with the occasional eclectic diversion for the sheer joy of painting. My frames are hand made in ash.

Anna Clement

Anna paints a variety of subjects, including portraits, flowers, seascapes and landscapes, in an expressive, colourful and distinctive style.

Beechwood, Toys Hill, Nr Westerham, TN16 1QG

STUDIO 61 Debbie Lowe
My main inspirations are the countryside and the Art Deco period. I work with Metal Clay as it is a versatile medium, allowing me to include a wide range of other materials which enhance my designs.

Frances Wells

Frances enjoys stimulation from Nature for her designs in Raku, Stoneware and Porcelain Ceramics/Pottery.

41 The Rise, Sevenoaks, TN13 1RQ

STUDIO 62 Mary Wright
Wheel thrown stoneware ceramics, decorated with slips and underglazes. I aim to retain the fluidity of the clay in my pieces. The Buncheong tradition of Korean pottery helps to inform my ceramics.

36 Granville Rd, Sevenoaks, TN13 1EY

STUDIO 63 Margaret Devitt
For Margaret Devitt painting is a constant process of exploration and experimentation with line, colour, form, texture and tonal value, moving in and out of figurative and abstract work.

4 Stapleford Court, Sevenoaks, TN13 2LB

what3words:///text.super.dragon

STUDIO 64 Isabelle Mercer
I conceive each piece as a decorative object that I would happily display in my home and they are often objects that are not normally made of wood.

Glebe House, Shoreham lane, Sevenoaks, TN13 3B

STUDIO 65 Annie McAlister-Dilks - Burnt Ash Ceramics
Form and surface are important to Annie to create a base for organic patterns inspired by her love of north Norfolk and created by smoke and raku firing.

38 Wildernesse Mount, Sevenoaks, TN13 3QS

STUDIO 66 Susan Fields
I enjoy making small editions of vessels and figurative ceramic sculptures. I find that my ideas ping-pong between the inspiration of the sea, the woods and the comings and goings of the seasons.

Sarah Bourne - Mosaic Mum

Currently, my work explores imperfection, reparation, and the materiality of ceramics to create contemporary sculptures, using the Kintsugi technique of repairing broken pottery.

Shootfield Cottage, Pilgrims Way, Sundridge, TN14 6AP

STUDIO 67 Jane Mucklow
Jane Mucklow photographs local Kent landscapes, trees, flowers, and details, inspired by the changing light and seasons; so you can stop and enjoy the moment too. Prints, calendars, jigsaws, cards.

Nina O'Farrell Ceramics

Nina creates elegant, functional wheel-thrown ceramics including mugs, vases, bowls & plates. Each piece is designed to evoke connection with nature, combining traditional and experimental techniques.
